Turn onboarding into a fun experience

Onboarding with game elements ensures that employees step into new roles armed with knowledge and enthusiasm to act.

Onboarding is more than just a task list

Provide new employees with an engaging onboarding platform. Let us move complicated processes into the world of game, where everything is simpler.

Use the automated process that not only conveys knowledge and organizes tasks but also captures the spirit of your company and givesenergy to act.

We will create a seamless process for you

Surely, you have more important things to do than transferring procedures from one system to another. A consistent language and an attractive form should not be one of your concerns, either.

With us, you will go through the creation of onboarding process without worrying about the technicalities. We will transfer your tasks, checklists, quizzes, surveys, and schedules to our platform.

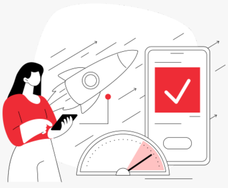

Engagement from the first day of work

Implementing onboarding with game elements allows for building strong relationships with the employee from the very beginning. With such an approach, not only do we convey essential information but also inspire exploration, collaboration, and active participation in the company's life from the very first day of work.

- Platform setup our end
- Your company's culture reflected in the game
- Onboarding process automation
- Insight into your employees' results
- Onboarding tasks in clear cards
- Building a positive employee-company relationship

Individual onboarding path for your employees

Your employees will receive an onboarding platform with tasks tailored to their positions and a structured process that will guide them step by step. Additionally, they will have access to a game that makes the entire adaptation process more enjoyable.

Numbers speak for themselves

Studies shows that the use of gamification elements in onboarding significantly increases the engagement and retention of new employees. It has turned out that implementing gamification in the process of introducing new team members increases their engagement, shortens the adaptation period, and enhances their sense of belonging to the company.

78%
Employees say that a gamified recruitment process makes the company more attractive

83%
